

SEPM Society for Sedimentary Geology and Utrecht University are holding the first in-person Arnold Bouma Research Conference on Deep Water Geoscience in April, 2023 in Utrecht, Netherlands. The meeting has the support of the SEPM Foundation Arnold and Lienecke Bouma Fund and we are looking for additional sponsors to help make this conference the best it can be and to help geoscientists from around the globe present their work, attend and network. Sponsorship funds are used to reduce overall registration costs and travel support for student, early career, and keynote speaker geoscientists.

Sponsorship Options include:
